PREZ SAYS...

We have had a lot of fun these last two months. It was a lovely trip to West Hartford's Elizabeth Rose Garden followed by a fine lunch, conveniently scheduled the day following my Grandson's graduation into West Hartford's middle school. Janet pulled together the arrangements to make it all happen flawlessly.

A grand picnic was scheduled on one of the hottest days so far this summer, but those attending made it a very comfortable evening. Thanks to arrangements made by Debbie, we used the Pavilion at the Y and invited several Y members to join us.

Both Debbie and Janet pulled this off terrifically - it was another fine "Deb and Janet Evening" (check out Ezio Pinza in South Pacific).

And then we just returned from a great day touring the Thimble Islands with a terrific lunch following at the Chowder Pot. You too can buy an Island for $4,000,000. Check with Janet, she can arrange it just like she did this tour.

We have had a few recent organizational changes with Ken Dartley, Fred Morris, and Jay Zitz leaving the Board, and our new Vice President is Barbara Quincy. What is very impressive is that these fellows have all been with us since we started the organization four years ago, as have many of the board members who are still remaining. They all work diligently to help Stay at Home meet its commitments to you. If you get a chance, why not say thanks to them.

Quartet is a 2012 British comedy-drama film based on the play by the same title, which ran in London's East End.

The plot takes place in Beecham House, a retirement home (beautiful English manor house) for gifted musicians, patterned after the real-life Casa di Riposo per Musicisti founded by Giuseppe Verdi.

All the guests in the retirement house continue to be engaged in their former musical profession in one way or the other, which gives place to lots of amusing times in the home, but also some rivalries amongst the musicians. The annual concert to celebrate Verdi's birthday is disrupted by the arrival of Jean, an eternal diva, and the former wife of one of the residents.

You'll be amazed at the energy displayed by the guests of the home, for whom the idea to rehearse and play before an audience, brings life back to them – much fun!!! You'll leave humming Rigoletto!! The film made me almost want to get out my "old clarinet".

Do join us for a fun afternoon – Senior Center Lounge from 3:00 to 5:00 on Tuesday, August 27. We'll munch popcorn and other goodies!

Bring a friend!!
