Many gathered for Stay at Home in Wilton's Annual Summer Barbecue on Friday, July 22, at Merwin Meadows. Executive Coordinator Janet Johnson welcomed more than 60 guests who dined on burgers and hot dogs generously provided by the Village Market. Homemade salads and desserts rounded out the menu.

Picnic goers cooled down with the welcomed arrival of summer breezes and the ice cream truck, a favorite Stay at Home summer tradition.

Stay at Home in Wilton is nonprofit volunteer-supported organization helping seniors to stay active, connected and together in Wilton. For information on membership or volunteer opportunities visit www.stayathomeinwilton.org.
